By-Laws 2024-2025

8.8.5 Footballs shall be as follows:

- K2 for Bantam and Junior,
- TDJ for Senior.

8.9 Allocation of players

8.9.1 Each leagues players shall be allocated by the draft system as follows:

Except for boy's ineligible to play, existing teams shall remain intact. Exceptions to this rule shall be approved only for the following circumstances:

8.9.1.1 A boy whose parent requests removal of that boy from a team to which he had been assigned the previous year, shall be removed, and entered the player draft, provided such parental request is made to the league commissioner, or to the President of the Corporation, no less than one (1) calendar day before the day of the league player draft. That same boy, under any circumstances whatsoever, shall not be eligible for assignment to a team as a protected player.

8.9.1.2 All players shall enter the league's player draft in accordance with Article 8.9.5. Protective option players shall be in accordance with the following:

- Each league's head coach shall be allowed to draft three (3) protective option players before the day of the player draft.

8.9.1.3 The 1st (first) protected (option) player shall be assigned to a team as that teams' 1st (first) round draft pick. The 2nd (second) protected player shall be assigned to that teams' 2nd (second) round draft pick and the 3rd (third) protected player will be that teams' 3rd (third) round pick.

8.9.1.4 The name(s) of all protected players shall be submitted in writing to each league's commissioner no later than the close of the last day of sign-ups.

8.9.1.5 The brother of a boy who is returning to a team, shall be, at the request of the parent(s), a designated brother option, who will then be assigned to the same team as his brother and as the team's 5th (fifth) round draft pick.

8.9.1.6 At the appropriate time before the day of the player draft, each league commissioner shall complete a list of draft eligible boys. This list shall include new sign-ups, protected players and brother options excluding any boy who is returning to an existing team in accordance with Article 8.9.1 above. The names of the new sign-ups shall be followed by the information that will assist a head coach in determining a draft pick. Such information shall include, but not exclude age, weight, school grade level and experience when known. All players must be weighed prior to the player draft.

8.9.2 When that single list of draft eligible boys has been compiled, the original of the list (either typed or handwritten) shall be retained by each league commissioner, and a single copy of that list shall be retained by the President of the Corporation. The league commissioner and the President of the Corporation shall be responsible for maintaining the integrity and security of the list of draft eligible boys.

8.9.3 Each league commissioner shall reproduce the list of draft eligible boys in quantity sufficient to the needs of the player draft and he shall make note of the number of copies. At the close of the draft the commissioners shall collect and account for each and every copy of the draft eligible boys, and along with the original, shall destroy all copies by shredding or burning.

8.9.4 Each league's commissioner shall compile a draft program for each league's team. The draft program shall include the following:

8.9.4.1 The names of each boy who is returning to his existing team in accordance with Article 8.9.1.

8.9.4.2 The number of draft round picks needed to complete the team's roster (boys per team less number of boys returning), with each draft round listed, round by round, beginning with round one (1). The older age group will be drafted 1st and each team will have a similar number of each age. Then the younger age will draft next and so forth. Will snake the draft order.

8.9.4.3 The names of the protected player(s) and brother(s) option(s), if any, listed in line with applicable draft round(s). First (1st), second (2nd), and third (3rd), for protected players, and fifth (5th) and sixth (6th) and subsequent round(s) for brother options.

8.9.5 Each league player draft shall proceed as follows:

8.9.5.1 On the day of the league's player draft, the league commissioners shall provide to each head coach a list of draft eligible boys and a draft program applicable to the head coach's respective team. Each head coach shall retain the list of draft eligible boys through the conclusion of the player draft. Further, each head coach shall maintain the security of the list in his possession, and, at the conclusion of the player draft, shall return the list to each league commissioner. Each head coach shall retain his draft program.

- Within one (1) hour after each sign-up day, each head coach will have a running list of players.

8.9.5.2 Drafting is as follows:

The drafting procedure will be in order of expansion teams first then teams with least number of players next and so forth. On draft day each head coach will choose a number for scheduling purposes only.

8.9.5.3 Protected players (coach and brother options) shall be drafted in the applicable rounds as provided under Article 8.9.1.3 and in accordance with the drafting order established under Article 8.9.6.3 herein. The three (3) protected players must have approval from the parents before the date of the player draft.

8.9.5.4 Brother options, whether designated because of (i.) being a brother of a returning player, (ii.) being a brother of a coach option player, or (iii.) being a brother of a new sign-up, shall be drafted by the applicable team as follows:

- 1st (first) brother option shall be drafted in 5th (fifth) round. 2nd (second) brother option shall be drafted in the 6th (sixth) round. 3rd (third) brother option shall be drafted in the 7th (seventh) round, etc., as required. These brother option draft stipulations shall remain in accordance with Article 8.9.1.

8.9.5.5 Not every team will draft in each round. As we will draft teams with the least number of players first, until each team has the same number of players, before we start the snake draft for each team.

8.9.5.6 Head coaches may draft the draft eligible boys of their choice without respect to the boys' age or grade.

8.9.5.7 The responsibility for maintaining the integrity of the league player draft shall rest with each league Commissioner, and each league Vice Commissioner, and their agent. Toward the end, they shall monitor the progress of the league's player draft to prevent a Head Coach from drafting out of turn or drafting during a round when he is not eligible. (i.e., his draft program is complete).

8.9.5.8 Each leagues team roster shall be completed through the league's player draft. Trading for players between teams is specifically unauthorized and unequivocally prohibited.

- If an option player commits to a coach and is registered and said player changes his mind as to what team he wants to play for, the player will automatically be removed from said team and placed in the draft.
- Coaches are not permitted to drop an option player after a registration commitment has been made.

8.9.5.9 When a second draft is to be held, such draft shall be known as a supplemental draft.

- Any coach adding team members after the draw/draft, not going before the Board of Directors for approval, the entire coaching staff will be removed. A new coach will then be assigned by the Board of Directors.
- The supplemental draft procedure will fill the team with the least number of players first, to fill each roster with the same number of players.
- If all teams have the same number of players, then a drawing will take place starting with the team with the least number of returners on said team.
- All supplemental drafts will be blind drafts.

8.9.5.10 Registration of player applicants for the league shall close immediately prior to the start of the supplemental draft and shall remain closed through the conclusion of the season, then in progress, notwithstanding the withdrawal or resignation of several players from any team with less than fourteen (14) players.

8.9.5.11 After the supplemental draft, when a team, because of withdrawal or resignation of several players (regardless of reason) can no longer field an eleven (11) man team, the disposition of the players remaining on such team shall be affected by the Board of Directors.

8.9.5.12 Each player shall be present at registration.

8.9.6 Any decision regarding players with special problems (such as ride) under discussion by the Board of Directors shall be resolved before the 1st (first) day of practice. However, any resolution which conflicts with the provisions of Articles 8.9.2 and 8.9.6 herein, shall be held invalidated and shall not take effect.

8.9.7 Allocation of players shall be executed by the Board of Directors immediately following the last day of registration and shall be consistent with all provisions of Articles 8.9 herein.

8.9.8 A roster of each team shall be prepared by the Board of Directors. A copy of each team roster shall be filed with the applicable league Commissioner, the Treasurer, and the Head Coach of each respective team, immediately following team allocation.

8.9.9 Coaches shall contact their players immediately following the team allocation and may begin team practice, in accordance with the provisions of these bylaws, on the Monday which follows the last registration day.

8.9.10 All players shall not deviate from these by-laws under any circumstances, except when a change to these by-laws has been mutually agreed upon and duly approved by the Voting Members and the Board of Directors. Each league player shall be placed in the draft without regard to school attended, address, weight, transportation, or any other problem. Special consideration will not be given to any player regardless of any prior commitment, concession, or agreement by a past officer or previous Board of Directors unless approved by the current Board of Directors whenever permitted by these by-laws.

8.9.11 The number of players allotted to each league team will depend on how many players are registered in that age division.

8.10 Game Schedule

8.10.1 The Board of Directors shall set up game schedules.

- 8.10.2 Any postseason games shall be determined by the Board of Directors and the Head Coaches. A majority vote shall be enforced.
- 8.10.3 Games outside the Corporation and scrimmages may be scheduled by individual Head Coaches before, during and following the conclusion of the Corporations schedule only with approval of the President, Vice-President, or two (2) members of the Board of Directors other than the Coaches involved.
- 8.10.4 All tournaments hosted by the Corporation shall be conducted in accordance with the rules set forth in these by-laws.
- 8.10.5 The regular season will consist of at least seven (7) games, and a scrimmage.
- 8.10.6 The schedule of games shall be created before draft day using a numbering system. Numbers shall represent teams and the schedule shall use each number as evenly as possible. The number drawn for the order of the draft-on-draft day is the number used for the team in the schedule.

8.11 Trophies and Sponsors

- 8.11.1 No sponsor names shall appear on uniforms.
- 8.11.2 Awards may be presented to all players, Coaches, cheerleaders, and Cheer Coordinators of super bowl teams.
- 8.11.3 Trophies and player recognition by the Corporation shall be determined by the Board of Directors. Any trophies, awards, etc., provided other than those directed by the Board of Directors is discouraged.

8.12 Violations

- 8.12.1 Any player who habitually plays “dirty” or conducts himself in an unsportsmanlike manner can be expelled from participating in any league of the Corporation, at the direction of the Board of Directors.
- 8.12.2 Any player who is ejected from a game by any of the officials shall be subject to being suspended for 2 quarters, at the discretion of the Board of Directors.
- 8.12.3 If any coach is guilty of misconduct (such as violation of these by-laws, abusive language, intoxication, fighting, etc.) at any official corporation gathering (such as games, practice, business meetings, etc.) disciplinary action may be taken or removal as Head Coach or Assistant Coach may be decided by the Board of Directors. This should be taken to include any officer of the Board of Directors and said officer may not cast a vote at any board meeting held at which he is the subject of a disciplinary action.

- 8.12.4 Any officer or coach failing to fulfill his duties may be brought before the existing Board of Directors whereby disciplinary actions may be taken. Further, any officer failing to fulfill his duties may be brought before the Board of Directors and a quorum of the general membership and may be removed as an officer of the Board of Directors by two-thirds (2/3) majority vote of all Voting Members present in person.
- 8.12.5 Any coach who has been removed as a Head Coach or Assistant Coach, or any member of the general membership who wished to act in the disciplined coach's behalf, may appeal the decision of the Board of Directors within three (3) days of said decision and call a meeting which must be assembled by the Board of Directors within seven (7) days of the appeal. A quorum, as defined in Article 5.6 herein, must be met and in person to overturn the decision previously made by the Board of Directors.
- 8.12.6 Every player must participate in every game unless three (3) Board of Director members grant prior authorization. The degree of participation is at the discretion of the Head Coach: however, a minimum of eight (8) downs must be played by each boy in each game. The Board of Directors will review the conduct of coaches guilty of violating this rule and appropriate action shall be enforced.
- Special teams count as a down towards minimum of plays.
- 8.12.7 No coach can forfeit or terminate a game either in progress or before the game starts without approval of five (5) members of the Board of Directors and appropriate action will be enforced.
- 8.12.8 Where parents and others are involved in unsportsmanlike conduct before, during, or after a game, and have rectified a warning, either directly or indirectly, from a member of the Board of Directors to restrain from such activity, and have refused to conform to acceptable behavior, such member of the Board of Directors reserve the right to have the person ejected from the premises by qualified public officials.
- 8.12.9 Any players participating in the program that refuses to acknowledge a warning from a member of the Board of Directors concerning their conduct before, during and after a game shall be subject to suspension for a period of one (1) game by the concurrence of a majority of the Board of Directors.

8.12.10 When a player is found to be ineligible for play, regardless of responsibility, and irrespective cause, he shall be removed from his team immediately, and such player will not be permitted to return to that team under any circumstances.

8.13 League Play-off Games and Super Bowl

8.13.1 The four (4) teams with the best over-all win-loss records at the end of regular season shall participate in league play-off games to determine the super bowl candidates for each league.

8.13.2 The play-off games for the respective leagues shall be conducted as follows:

- The team with the best record in the league shall compete against the team with the 4th (fourth) best record in the league.
- The team with the 2nd (second) best record shall contest the team with the 3rd (third) best record in the league.
- In the event of a three (3) way tie, there will be a play-off.
- If teams already qualified for play-offs are tied, a coin toss will decide positions.

8.13.3 During a play-off game, if the ending score is tied, the winner of such play-off game shall be determined as follows:

- Bantam League: The ball will be placed on the ten (10) yard line. Each team will alternate possessions until one (1) team scores.
- Junior League: The ball will be placed on the twenty (20) yard line. Each team will alternate possessions until one (1) team scores.

Article 10 – Miscellaneous

10.1 Changes to the By-laws

10.1.1 These by-laws may be altered, amended, or repealed in accordance with the following:

- By-laws are in effect immediately upon ratification.
- At a special meeting of the members, to be convened once a year for the purpose of amending these by-laws, by which they may only be altered, amended, or repealed by affirmative vote of a majority of Voting Members present, provided a quorum of such Voting Members, as defined in Article 5.6 herein, is present at such meeting.
- Once approved in accordance with this, the by-laws are ratified and shall remain in effect through the ensuing season and no further changes shall be approved and incorporated until the next by-law meeting is convened the following year.

10.2 The number of directors may be increased or decreased from time to time by amendment to these by-laws, but no decrease shall have the effect of shortening the term of any incumbent director. Any director's position to be filled by reason of increase in the number of directors shall be filled by election at the annual meeting or at a special meeting called for that purpose.

10.3 Any contract or other transaction between the Corporation and any of its directors, or any corporation or firm in which any of its directors are directly or indirectly involved or invested in, shall be valid for the purpose notwithstanding the presence of such director at the meeting authorizing such contract or transaction, or his participation in such meeting. The forgoing shall, however, apply only if the interest of each director having direct or indirect involvement or investment in such contract or transaction is known and disclosed to the Board of Directors, prior to such contract or transaction being accepted. Notwithstanding, such contract or transaction shall be authorized by a majority vote of the Board of Directors present. Said director being involved or interest in such contract or transaction may be counted in determining whether a quorum is present but shall not be counted in calculating the majority necessary to carry such vote. This section shall not be construed to invalidate any contract or transaction, which would be valid in the absence of this section.

10.4 The Corporation shall keep correct and complete books and records of account and shall keep minutes of the proceedings of its members and of its Board of Directors and shall keep at its registered offices or principal place of business, a record of its Voting Members.

By-Laws 2024-2025

- 10.5 The Board of Directors shall present at each annual meeting of members a full and clear statement of the business and condition of the Corporation, including a reasonably detailed balance sheet and income statement.
- 10.6 The Corporation shall indemnify any director, officer, coach, agent or employee, or former director, officer, coach, agent, or employee of the Corporation, or any person who may have served at its request as a director, officer, coach, agent, or employee of another corporation in which it is a creditor, against expenses actually and necessarily incurred by him and any amount paid in satisfaction of judgments in connection with any action, suit, or proceedings, whether civil or criminal in nature, in which he has made a party by reason of being or having been such director, officer, coach, agent or employee (whether or not a director, officer, coach, agent or employee at such time costs or expenses are incurred or imposed on him) except in relation to matters as to which he shall be judged in such action, suit, or proceeding to be liable for gross negligence or willful misconduct in the performance of his/her duties. The Corporation may also reimburse to any director, officer, coach, agent, or employee the reasonable costs of settlement of any such action, suit, or proceeding. If it shall be found by a majority of the Board of Directors or a committee formed by the Board of Directors, not involved in the matter in controversy, whether or not a quorum has been met, that it was to be in the best interests of the Corporation that such settlement be made and that such director, officer, coach, agent or employee was found to be not guilty of gross negligence or willful misconduct. Such rights or indemnification and reimbursement shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which such director, officer, coach, agent, or employee may be entitled by law or otherwise.
- 10.7 Any director or officer may resign by giving written notice to the President or the Secretary. Such resignation shall take effect at the time specified therein; acceptance of such resignation shall not be necessary to make it effective.
- 10.8 Any action required by statutes to be taken at the meeting of the members of this Corporation, or any action which may be taken without a meeting if a consent in writing, setting forth the action so taken, shall be signed by all the members entitled to vote with respect to the subject matter thereof, which shall be placed in the minute book of the Corporation.
- 10.9 If any part of these by-laws shall be held invalid or inoperative for any reason, the remaining parts, so far as possible and reasonable shall be valid and operative.
- 10.10 League divisions, conference and non-conference games, standings, champions, and championship games will be determined by the Board of Directors, according to these by-laws.

Article 11 – Termination

11.1 In the event the Corporation is terminated or dissolved, all assets remaining after liquidation of all outstanding liabilities shall be distributed in accordance with the Articles of the Corporation.
